

HOW THE ITALIAN CANECORSO CAME TO AUSTRALIA.

Itacor is an Australian registered breeder of the Italian CANECORSO. We are a family that loves animals, our children have grown to admire and cherish this unique rare breed.

Itacor first became aware of this rare breed 15 years ago.

1996

Wanting to import the breed to Australia the process began. We wanted to import the best of the breed. Therefore allowing us to produce the quality of a pure breed with the best appearance, temperament and health.

2000

Itacor obtained and imported their first pure breed Italian CANECORSO from Champion bloodlines.

2002

Itacor produced our first litter.

2003

Itacor presented the CORSO to gain ANKC (Australian National Kennel Council) approval and recognition. The CORSO gaining official approval and became the 52nd pure breed in Australia and placed on the Main Register. www.ankc.aust.com

Our passion, dedication and thorough enjoyment of the CORSO has been reflected on the wonderful nature our puppies portray. We have made it possible for every Australian to acquire this beautiful, strong but elegant dog to be part of your life and the whole family. Whether it be for the purpose as a show dog, family pet or personal protector the CORSO is sure to give the ultimate pleasure as your companion for life.

Guardian of the FUTURE!